

Art at the Treehouse with A4D

Join our FREE programme for people with early-stage dementia or mild cognitive impairment and their companions

We will be hosting free art workshops at the Treehouse in Elephant Park for a whole year!

Join us for Term 1! A 10-week mixed media art programme delivered by the fantastic Artist, Seiwa Cunningham, who has previously taught at the Museum of London.

Every session will involve a different arts activity inspired by nature. Workshops will include painting, collage, drawing and print making.

All materials are included and no previous art experience is needed, its all about giving it a go!

Limited spaces available. Get in touch to avoid disappointment.
